

Dear FCC:

For the past two years, I have been tutoring high school students in political science. One issue we discuss is how the media affects democracy. Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the danger media consolidation has on a full democratic process. What a poor lesson to America's young voters!

Sinclair is obligated by law to serve the public interest, not just their own interest! Sinclair's actions demonstrate why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. Please stop this travesty and stop Sinclair.

Thank you.
